

I live within the broadcast area of TV station KGAN in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

KGAN is owned by Sinclair
Broadcasting, whose executives have regularly aired very biased opinions on KGAN in the past.

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary "Stolen Honor" just days before the election
is a clear example
of their political bias and the dangers of media
consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
